

Fig F. Effect of cross-correlation threshold in the number of communities inferred by the T-SBM. We observe the same relative differences between simple and complex devices for a range of thresholds from 0.05 to 0.20. For 0.30 and possibly above, we observe little difference, since there is little connectivity in the graphs.